

AUSTRALIS®
CAPE HORN & PATAGONIA

Magellanic penguin

Ferdinand Magellan

The magellanic Penguin

*Spheniscus
magellanicus*

Species

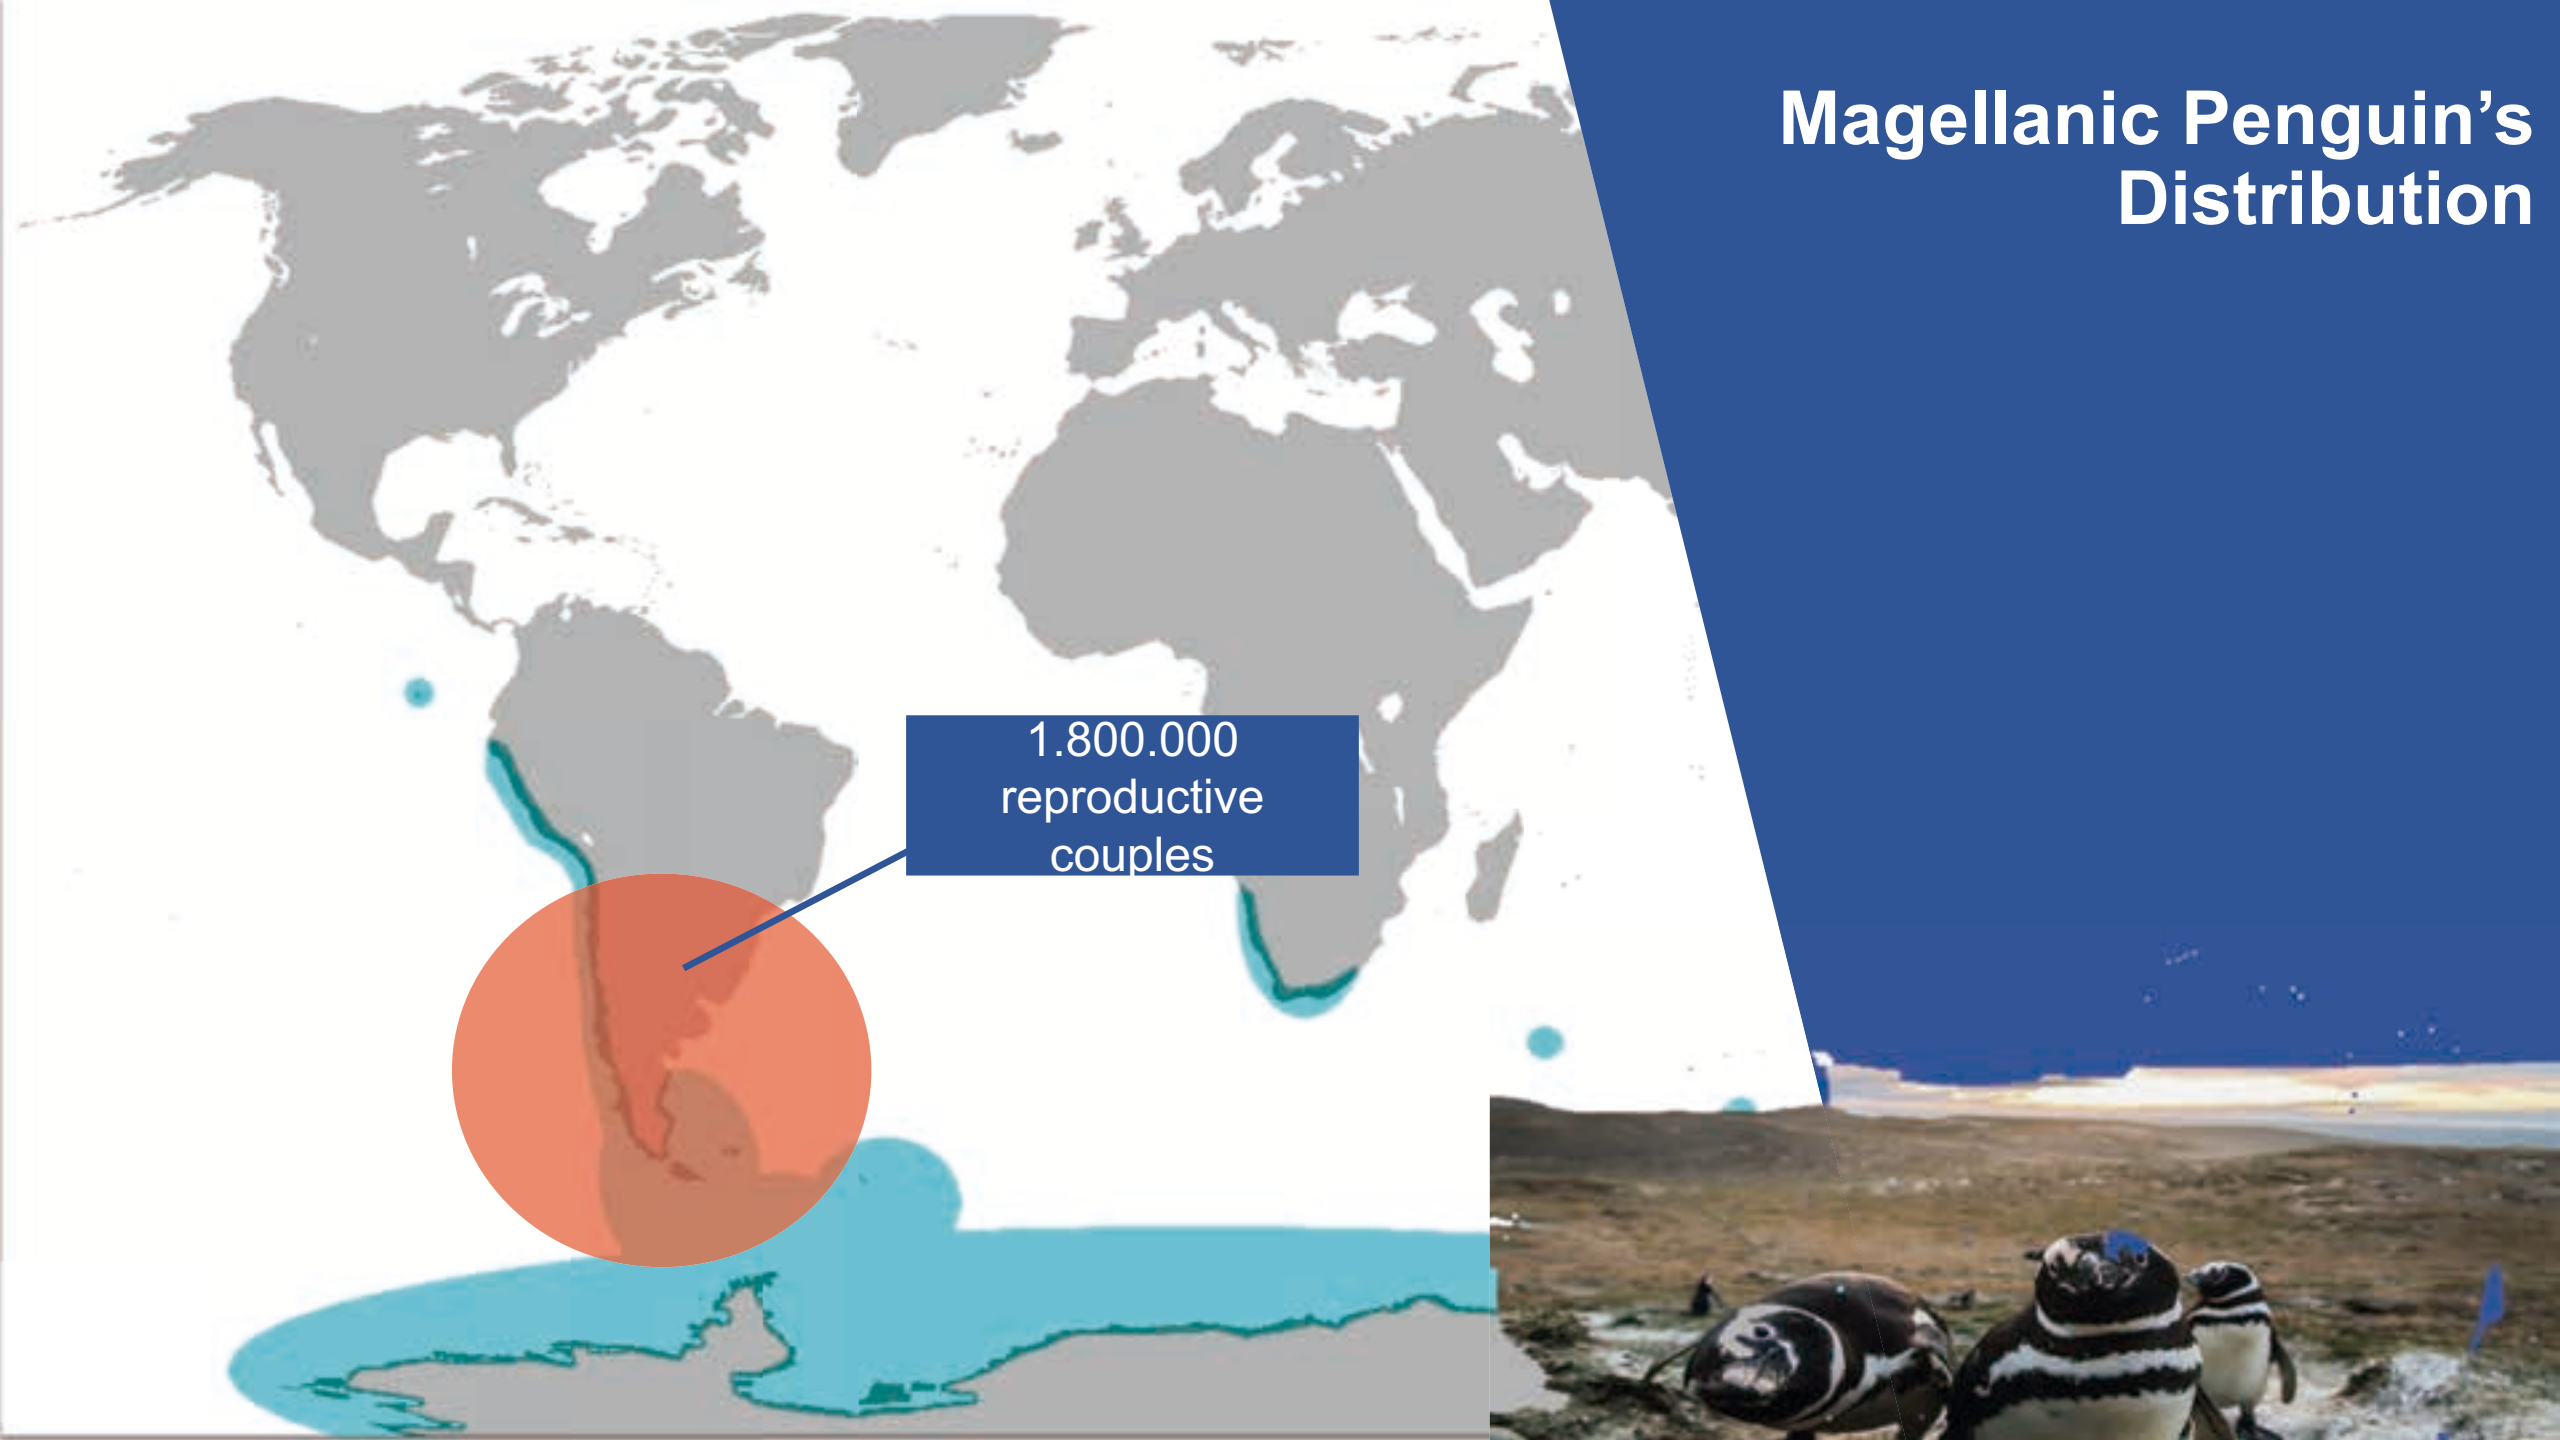

Spheniscus

World Distribution

Magellanic Penguin's Distribution

1.800.000
reproductive couples

50-70 cm

Age
20_{aprox}

3'5-5'5 Kg

Characteristics

Black &
White

Heavy and dense

Stages of maturity

Chick

Adult

Juvenile

Pelagic birds

Habitat

Adaptations for the life at sea

Movements at sea

Predators

Reproductive Period

Males's arrival

Search and cleaning of nests

Preparation of the nest

Cleanliness

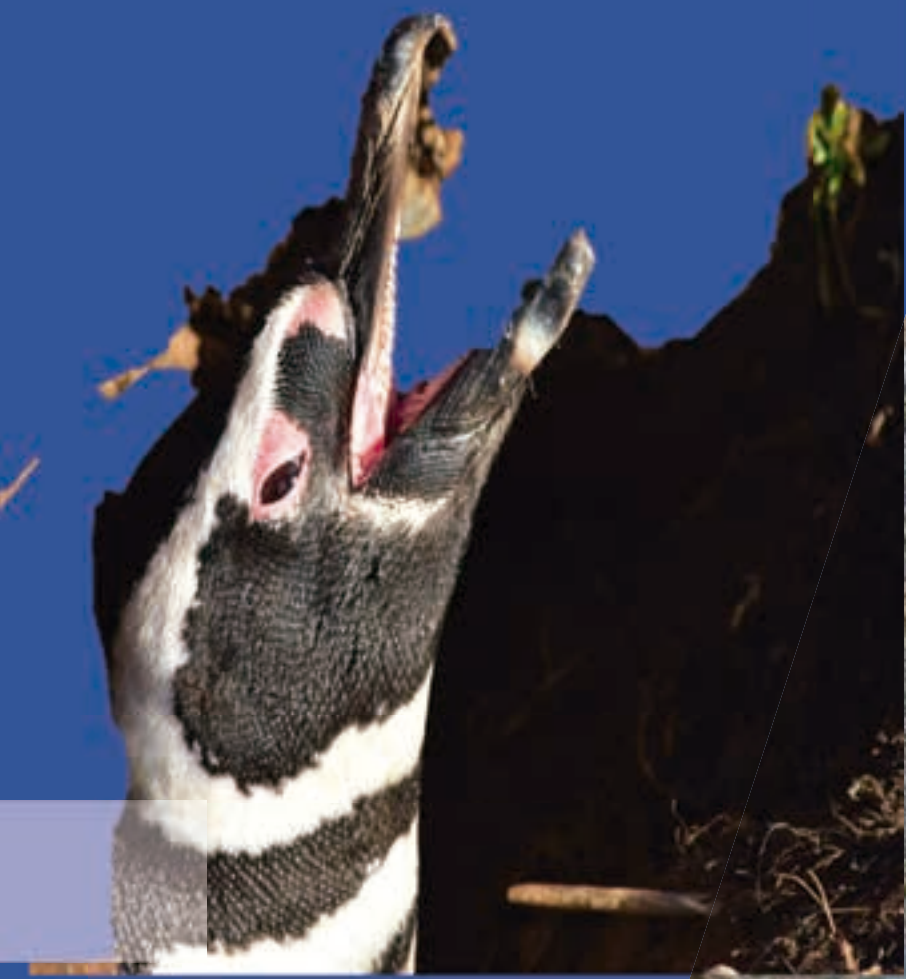

Recognition and selection of partner

Vocalization

Reproduction

Incubation

Dependence to the parents

Feeding

Protection

Heat

Molting of the chicks

Molting of the adults

Ready to leave

Thank you!

WWW.AUSTRALIS.COM